

One day workshop on aspects of bracken control in the UK

Objectives of Today's Meeting

- Share information and knowledge about current practices and pressures
- Have an open forum for honest discussion between all stakeholders involved in bracken management and use of Asulox
- Output of meeting will be used to develop product stewardship programme – essential for the continued availability of Asulox.